

Obituaries, Services, Memorials

Orlando Sentinel

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 31, 2004 B7

State

ADRIATICO, JANE W., 86, died Saturday, March 27, 2004. Born in Chicago, IL, she moved to Goldenrod in 1947, after serving as a flight nurse in the Pacific Theater for the Army Air Corps during WWII. She married and is survived by her of 56 years, Venancio Adriatico. During her lifetime, Jane owned and operated Goldenrod Real Estate from 1950-1978. She is survived by her daughters Carmen Clifton of DeLeon Springs, Adrienne Adriatico of Winter Springs, and son Juan Adriatico of Paisley. She leaves behind six grandchildren and one great grandchild. Her family would like her to be remembered as a maverick in her white work boots tending to her grove. Jane became instrumental in many organizations her community through the years including Past President of the Goldenrod Civic Club, Director and Secretary of Goldenrod Historical Society, Past President of Polish National Alliance, Treasurer of Filipino-American Club, Chairman and Vice-Chairman of Seminole County Democratic Committee, a Red Cross Volunteer, and member of the Committee of 100, WWII Flight Nurses Association, Florida Citrus Council, and Florida Forestry Association. A real spitfire and very patriotic, Jane loved wearing red, she enjoyed opera and played with the Debarry Orchestra and the Geneva Band. Her family would like the community to know that she loved Goldenrod and counted her friends and neighbors among her most cherished and fondest memories. Pallbearers include Milton Raw, Daniel Boone, Paul Harding, Jack Adams, Frank Libertore, Ed Owens, and Jim Logue. A wake will be held in Jane's memory on Thursday, April 1, 2004 from 5-8PM at Baldwin-Fairchild Funeral Home on Aloma Avenue in Goldenrod. Mass will be at 10AM at St. Peter & Paul's Catholic Church in Goldenrod on Old Howell Branch Road. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that a donation with sincere gratitude be made to Hospice of the Comforter. They have been generous with their time and their care of the Adriatico family.