Victoria M. Zimmer, 81

Air Force flight nurse;
served on troop ships

CENTERVILLE - Victoria M. (Feuerherd) Zimmer, 81, died Wednesday at her home.

She was the wife of William Zimmer for more than 50 years.

Mrs. Zimmer was raised in Westbury, N.Y., and became a registered nurse at Mary Immaculate Hospital in Jamaica, N.Y. During the Korean War, she served as an Air Force flight nurse stationed in Europe, flying the wounded between countries. Earlier, she had worked as a nurse aboard troop ships, transporting displaced persons to the United States from abroad. She later worked as an occupational nurse in various locations in the United States.

After her military service, she married and raised a family of seven children. She enjoyed horseback riding and pursued an active lifestyle. She was also active in several choral groups. An avid writer, she contributed articles on her foreign experiences to local newspapers.

Besides her husband, survivors include four daughters, Margaret Duffy of Somers, Conn., Barbara Zimmer of Victor, Idaho, Jean Zimmer of Northampton and Catherine Zimmer of Aspen, Colo.; two sons, Rick Zimmer of Anchorage, Alaska, and Paul Zimmer of Kodiak, Alaska; three sisters, Katherine Feuerherd and Margaret Feuerherd of Westbury, N.Y., and Claire Dupont of Hempstead, N.Y.; and 12 grandchildren. She was also the mother of the late William Zimmer.

Visitation is 5 to 8 p.m. today at Doane, Beal & Ames Funeral Home, 160 West Main St., Hyannis. A funeral will be at 10 a.m. tomorrow at Our Lady of Victory Church, 230 South Main St., Centerville.

Memorial donations may be made to Visiting Nurse Association of Cape Cod, 434 Route 134, South Dennis, MA 02660.
